

Dana Wiegand (she/they) works as the Archivist at Lambda Archives of San Diego. Dana earned a MLIS degree through Syracuse University and is passionate about increasing the availability and accessibility of LGBTQIA+ history and resources. Dana also holds a BA in History, and focused on the history of oppressed peoples during their undergraduate studies. They are dedicated to putting the voices of BIPOC and LGBTQIA+ persons at the forefront of historical and social discourse, and consider it an honor to preserve the history of our community. In their spare time Dana enjoys reading, museums, going to the beach, and hanging out with their dogs and partner.
