

Angel Soltero (he/him) has been working at Chase bank as an associate banker for two years, with previous experience in the dietary field and call centers. He was born and raised in San Diego, but lived his teen years in Guadalajara, Mexico. He is a 2023 YPC graduate and lives in Hillcrest with his partner David and his cat, Gia. In his spare time he likes to travel, cook, karaoke and use different media to create art.