

Trent Lozano-Osier (he/him) has been providing accounting services for 8 years including serving as a bookkeeper for Lambda Archives and other non-profits in the greater San Diego area. A 20-year Navy Veteran, he retired in 2013 with honorable service and several awards. During his career, he was deployed to Iraq and the Middle East in support of Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation Iraqi Freedom. Trent completed an Associate's Degree from the University of Phoenix in 2006 and at Mesa Community College with an Accounting Degree in 2016. His 20 years in the Navy has brought valuable administrative skills and discipline.

When not crunching the numbers, Trent enjoys gardening with his husband, spending time with friends and family, and playing on a softball team called Wicked, which is part of the AFCSL (America's Finest City Softball League). Trent also loves to play board games.
